

JETS GYMNASTICS TRAVEL POLICY 2018

A. Inclusive Team Travel (ie. USA tour/Major Competitions - Nationals/training camp)

Jets gymnastics is responsible for booking all interstate travel, accommodation and food for training camps and competitions in compliance with the below:

- All gymnasts will travel with the team.
- All gymnasts and team coaches must travel to and from the competition as a team, as arranged by Squad Program Manager or Head Coach.
- All gymnasts and team coaches must stay at the arranged accommodation and eat the team meals [dietary needs will be accommodated]
- Jets Gymnastics will provide 1 staff member to every 6 gymnasts.
- All team invoices must be paid in full prior to departure.
- Cost to gymnasts will include a levy for support staff.

B. Semi-Inclusive Team Travel (Major Interstate Competitions – National Clubs)

Jets Gymnastics is responsible for booking all interstate travel, accommodation and food for training camps and competitions, however a parent or guardian may travel with their daughter in compliance with the below:

- All gymnasts will travel with the team.
- All gymnasts and team coaches must travel to and from the competition as a team, as arranged by Squad Program manager or Head Coach.
- All gymnasts and team coaches must stay at the arranged accommodation and eat the team meals [dietary needs will be accommodated]
- If you have concerns around your daughters well-being or she is 10 years of age and under, you are more than welcome to submit special consideration to travel with the team to the Squad Program Manager/Head Coach.
- Special consideration will need to be submitted in writing to the Jets Gymnastics Squad Program Manager or Head Coach.
- The gymnast is required to stay with the parent or guardian at the same accommodation as the Jets Gymnastics Team for sleeping purposes only.
- The parent/guardian must supply a valid working with children check.
- Parents agree not to have contact with other members of the team and not to interfere with team activities.
- Team activities are for gymnasts and Jets team members only. Gymnasts travelling with their parents will be expected to take part in all team activities inclusive of travel to and from training venues, training sessions, team meals and other activities.
- Parents will be responsible for booking all of their own travel.
- Jets Gymnastics will provide 1 staff member to every 6 gymnasts.
- All team invoices must be paid in full prior to departure.
- Cost to gymnasts will include a levy for support staff.
- We highly encourage all athletes to travel by themselves as soon as they are ready to encourage team harmony, independence and a chance to be fully immersed in the experience.

C. Partial Team Travel (ie. Training Camps/Competitions within State)

Gymnasts make their own travel arrangements (or travel is within 3 hours is organised by Jets) and Jets Gymnastics will organise all accommodation from a designated date and time. All team members must stay at the official accommodation and all gymnasts will be under the care and responsibility of Jets Gymnastics staff until the release date and time which will be communicated in advance.

- Special consideration will only be assessed if submitted in writing to Jets gymnastics Squad Program Manager or Head Coach.
- Gymnasts 15 years or younger must travel to the accommodation with an adult.
- Once the gymnasts are in the care of Jets Gymnastics staff, the team will be responsible for all meals, ground transport and other team needs. *see gymnast collection/handover
- Jets Gymnastics will provide 1 staff member to every 6 gymnast.
- All team invoices must be paid in full prior to departure.
- Cost to gymnasts will include a levy for management support.

D. Independent Team Travel

The team will travel and accommodate independently. Jets Gymnastics staff will manage team members only during training and competition times.

- Cost to athletes may include a levy for management support.
- Gymnasts are to arrange their own travel to the competition and training venues and are required to be at these venues at the times designated by the Squad Program Manager or Head Coach.
- Jets Gymnastics will provide gymnast with their regular coaching staff, unless other circumstances have been previously communicated to you.

5. Accommodation
6. Uniform Requirements
7. Medical Information
8. Food Requirements
9. Cancellation/withdrawal fees
10. Insurance
11. Communication
12. Parents/Families/Partners
13. Emergency Procedures
14. Gymnast Study Time
15. Duties of Team Members
16. Breaches to Team Rules
17. Forms to complete

1. Gymnast Collection/Handover

Gymnasts come under the care of the Jets Gymnastics Team at the following points:

Gymnasts travelling on Policy A: The Jets Gymnastics team convenes at the airport and gymnasts are required to meet and check in/out with the Jets Gymnastics Team Manager/Head Coach at the time allocated.

Gymnasts travelling on Policy B: The Jets Gymnastics team convenes at the airport and gymnast are required to meet and check in/out with the Jets Gymnastics Team Manager/Head Coach at the time allocated or alternatively if they are travelling on alternative travel arrangements with their parent/guardian they are required to check in with the Gymnastics Team Manager/Head Coach at the accommodation and at the time allocated. These athletes must provide the Team Manager/Head Coach with their travel details.

Gymnasts travelling on Policy C: The Jets Gymnastics team convenes at the accommodation and gymnasts are required to check in/out with the Jets Gymnastics Team Manager/Head Coach at the accommodation and at the time allocated. These athletes must provide the Team Manager/Head Coach with their travel details.

Gymnasts travelling on Policy D: The Jets Gymnastics Team Manager/Head Coach will communicate as to when and where team members are expected to convene.

2. Amendments to Travel

Any request for changes to travel dates need to be applied for in writing to Jets Gymnastic Squad Manager/Head Coach prior to booking any travel. Any extra charges incurred by changing travel will be charged back to person making the request.

3. Age Requirements

- Jets Gymnastics does not allow gymnast to participate in interstate training camps or competitions until the age of 8.
- Gymnasts between the ages 8 and 10 may travel and stay with parents at the team accommodation, if it is a National Event or Nationally selected training camp. Parents are required to submit special consideration in writing to the Jets Gymnastics Squad Program manager/Head Coach prior to travel arrangements being commenced. They will be considered under travel policy B.

- Gymnast over the age of 10 are encouraged to travel independently with the Jets Gymnastics Team, however any concerns can be expressed in writing to the Jets Squad Manager/Head Coach.
- Parent/Guardian accompanying a child must sign the code of conduct, parent travel consent form and complete all other team forms.

4. Staffing

- Jets Gymnastics will provide the following staff ratios (adults over 18 years of age):
 - Travel Policy A & B & C 1:6
 - Travel Policy D 1:10
- Jets Gymnastics will appoint a Head Chaperone for each trip, who is responsible for any parent communication during the trip.
- Any Coaches travelling with the team on Policy A, B & C will have been employed with Jets Gymnastics for a minimum of 3 years unless Jets has provided written explanation prior to travel.
- All Coaches, Staff or Chaperone travelling with the team need to have completed a Working with Children Check.

5. Accommodation Standards

- Accommodation where possible will be shared apartment style with a female adult present in each apartment.
- Wherever possible accommodation provided will have a minimum of two gymnast per room or three per apartment unless approved by the Jets Gymnastics Squad Manager/Head Coach or where a gymnast is accompanied by a parent or guardian.
- There will be absolutely no sharing of rooms between adult staff members and gymnasts. Gymnasts who are unable to share a room with other gymnasts, will be unable to travel with the team.
- All male and female's will be accommodated in separate apartments/rooms.
- Gymnasts aged 16 years of age and over do not require an adult in their apartment.
- Accommodation where possible will be within walking distance to training/competition venues unless this creates a disadvantage to the Jets Gymnastics Team. (ie. High costs, not suitable accommodation)
- Except for parent/guardians or another person approved in writing by a parent/guardian adults are not permitted to sleep or accommodate in the same room as gymnasts under the age of 18.
- Gymnasts of a different gender are not permitted to share an apartment in apartment style accommodation.

6. Uniform requirements

- Gymnast and staff need to travel to and from camps and all training venues in team uniform. Parents and Gymnast will be notified of Team uniform prior to travel.
- All gymnast and staff need to present themselves in a neat and tidy manner in and out of team uniform.
- All gymnast will be required to bring team training leotards to training camps/competitions.

7. Medical Information

Medical Details

- All gymnasts travel with the Jets Gymnastics Team will need to complete and submit a medical form prior to travel, this information may be provided to doctors/medical staff if required.

Medication

- All medication must be placed in a Jets issued 'Gym Joey' labelled correctly with the name of the gymnast and given to the Team Manager/Chaperone along with clear instructions as to the dosage and times to take such medication.

- Parents are advised NOT to give any medication to their child, rather to consult with the Team Manager/Chaperone to ensure medication is administered correctly.

Health of Team Members

- All gymnast are expected to arrive at the handover point fit for competition and travel. It is the responsibility of the parents/gymnast to communicate any changes in a gymnast condition prior to travel.
- If a gymnast arrives in an infectious state they may be required to return home or be roomed in an additional room at their own expense if required.
- The Head Coach will make the final decision as to whether a gymnast is fit to compete.
- During the training camp/competition all team members must inform the Team Manager/Head Coach of any injury, illness or other conditions. The team manager will arrange for appropriate medical intervention and contact the parent of the gymnast if they are under 18 years of age.

Asthma/Allergy Action Plans

Team members who have asthma or allergies with a severe allergic reaction are required to provide either an Action Plan for Allergic Reactions, Action Plan for Anaphylaxis or an Asthma Action Plan as required.

8. Food Requirements.

- Any food allergies or requirements should be clearly indicated on the completed medical/special dietary needs forms to be completed before travel.
- We will provide healthy meals for Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner.
- The catering of meals will be dependent on the accommodation. Ie. If we have limited kitchen space, dinner will be eaten out as a team. However, the priority will be to prepare Breakfast and Lunch at our accommodation.

9. Cancellation/Withdrawal Fees **

- Once a gymnast has signed their "trip acceptance" form and paid their deposit, all flights and accommodation will be booked by Jets Gymnastics. Any changes or cancellation costs incurred after this time this will be at the parents/gymnasts expense.
- All accommodation and flights will be booked through Jets Gymnastics, unless prior written consent has been given by the Head Coach/Team manager.
- Original trip costs (letter with trip acceptance) are an estimate only and actual trip costs may vary. Jets Gymnastics will endeavour to keep the costs as close as possible to the original quotes in all circumstances.
- All trip costs must be paid in full prior to the gymnast travelling with the team.

*Injury Clause at time of booking - If a gymnast is injured at the time of the Jets Gymnastics Team making travel arrangements, they will have the option to delay the booking of travel. They will be responsible for booking their own travel and will incur any extra expense by delaying booking. They will also need to be aware that they may not be able to travel with the team and will need to ensure that gymnast can travel independently if required. Parents may be liable for competition fees or accomodation costs, if the costs cannot be recovered.

10. Insurance

Personal Accident Insurance

- Included in membership paid by each gymnast is a personal accident insurance policy.
- Insurance is available via SportsCover. All claims must be notified to SportsCover via their online claim form within 120 days of the accident. The online claim form is available at <http://marshadventure.com.au/Portals/14/docs/Sporting%20Accident%20Claims%20Form%202309.14%20V19.pdf>

- Please note for cover of physiotherapy, chiropractic or other specialist care a referral must be made from a qualified medical practitioner prior to seeking help from the specialist.

Private Health Insurance

It is highly recommended that families with a child or children in the squad gymnastics program have a quality private health insurance policy which covers children for medical expenses including physiotherapy, chiropractic, x-rays and the like.

Travel Insurance

- Jets Gymnastics does not include Travel Insurance in their bookings. It is recommended that Team members wanting travel insurance should take out their own policy and any costs will be the responsibility of each individual.
- Travel Insurance is compulsory for all international travel.

11. Communication

- Gymnasts can only be contacted and use phones during the specified times (notified by chaperone) at all other times gymnasts private mobile phones will remain with their chaperone. Should you require contact with your daughter outside of this time contact must only be made through the Team Manager/Chaperone.
- Lights out will be 9.00pm. Unless impacted by late competition/training sessions. Contact outside of this time will only be allowed in exceptional circumstances.
- Team Manager/Chaperones will contact you at any time should an issue with your daughter arise.
- If you have any problems or concerns these should be discussed with the Team Manager/Chaperone prior to our departure.
- Gymnast contact may not be every day and is dependent on the schedule and training requirements, please do not worry if you do not hear from your daughter.

12. Parents/Families/Partners

- Parents, families and partners are more than welcome to support and view competitions, but they must keep in mind that team Managers, Coaches and Chaperones have roles and responsibilities to fulfill.

Parents/families/partners travelling to competitions

- Acknowledge that the gymnast are part of a team which is under the control and supervision of the Team Manager, Chaperone, Coaches at all times.
- Respect the decisions made by the Team Manager, Chaperones, Coaches regarding seating, food, medication etc. and please do not attempt to discuss any of these matters with officials at the competition, contact the Team Manager at a more appropriate time.
- While viewing the competition, and throughout their stay at the chosen accommodation; It is not appropriate that you seat yourself with the gymnast whilst viewing a competition which they are observing.
- Please respect the chaperone(s) duties and check with them first.
- The chaperones will endeavour to organise times of when you will be able to have contact with the gymnast. In most situations this will be after the gymnast's competition. Part of the trip is used for Gymnast education and assisting the Gymnasts to develop an understanding of competing while travelling away from home. Gymnasts are encouraged to maintain their focus throughout the week of competition so that their results can be a reflection of their hard work and effort prior to travelling. Controlling their emotions and not being distracted by outside influences which can have an effect on their performance is important.

- There is no need for parents to drop off packages of food to the Gymnasts during the trip. Gymnasts who are hungry or not liking the food choices are encouraged to communicate with the chaperones. This is a vital part of the education process. We appreciate parents support in this matter.
- Be subject to the Parent behaviours as outlined in our Jets Gymnastics Squad Handbook.
- Follow all policies and procedures of Jets Gymnastics Do nothing to bring Jets Gymnastics into disrepute.
- Family support is more than encouraged, however if you wish to travel to the competition accommodation must be at a separate accommodation to allow the gymnast the full team experience.

Parents/families/partners not travelling to competitions

- Chaperones will organise times where the Gymnasts can contact home. Please read through conditions outlined in communication. This is usually done after the competition has finished, however this will be dependent on the finishing time of the competition.
- There are certain times allocated throughout the travel period when the Gymnasts will have use of their mobile phones. This may not be every day and is dependent on the schedule and training requirements.
- Please do not be concerned if you have not received a phone call from your child every day.
- If you have concerns or need to get in contact with your child, this can be done through the Team Manager.

13. Emergency procedures

Where appropriate we will follow the GV State Team Travel Management Plan as attached in the appendix.

14. Gymnast study time

Gymnast that require study time during team camps/competitions should liaise with Team manager, Chaperone and Coaches to discuss scheduling study times.

15. Duties of Team Members

- Gymnasts must understand that the trip is not a holiday. Lights out times will be enforced and gymnasts must respect individual’s needs for sleep in their efforts to achieve their best performance.
- Support of all team members is vital. We are trying to build the best gymnastics program in the world which means all team members must be supportive of each others efforts to succeed.
- Gymnast are expected to perform in all training sessions and competitions and to train for maximum performance. Unless prior arrangements have been made with a coach or they are restricted by illness or injury.
- It is strongly recommended that members of the team do not bring valuables which might get lost or stolen. If you choose to bring items of this nature please remember that this is at the gymnast own risk and Jets Gymnastics, the coaches, Team Managers or chaperones cannot be responsible for the loss or theft of such items.
- If a gymnast brings pocket money and would like the Team Manager or chaperone to look after this money, please put it in an envelope clearly marked with your name and hand it to the appropriate person.
- No one is permitted to leave the team at any time during the Championships without the knowledge and approval of the Team Manager or Head Coach.
- All gymnast must return appropriate information and forms to Jets Gymnastics as required enabling the efficient administration of the travel arrangements and uniform.
- Wear the appropriate uniform as instructed, or respond to the dress guidelines as instructed.

16. Breaches to team Rules

- All gymnast are subject to the Jets Gymnastics Club principles and Gymnasts responsibilities.
